CONSULTANCY

Our Services

Achieve compliance without compromise, guided by experts and powered by data. Benefit from long-term compliance and a strong safety culture with our expert consultancy services. Our highly experienced consultants function as an extension of your team, providing bespoke advice to facilitate efficient workflow in whichever area needs attention.

Our clients range from large blue-chip organisations operating on a global level, through to SMEs operating across a diverse range of sectors.

3 Key Benefits and Features

Consultant-Led Approach: We provide practical advice on: health & safety, environmental services, asbestos, fire safety and deliver training courses informed by real-world expertise.

Bespoke Solutions: We provide customised solutions to tackle your specific compliance challenges, using our expertise to develop practical, effective strategies for your organisation.

MI Reporting: Through advanced analytics, we transform compliance data into clear, actionable insights that enable you to develop targeted strategies that lead to tangible improvements.

3 Key Problems the Product Overcomes

Fragmented Information: Tackle the challenge of disconnected systems and spreadsheets, which create data silos and restrict visibility. Instead, you are better equipped to make informed decisions.

Reactive Compliance: We help you to adopt an effective, proactive strategy that mitigates risks before they escalate.

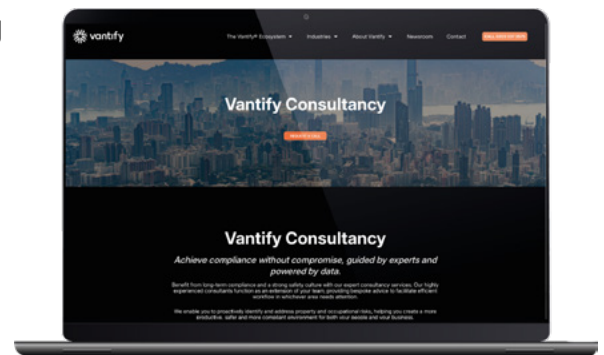

Lack of Expertise: Overcome the challenge of staying up to date with evolving regulations. Our consultants translate complex regulations into clear actionable steps so you can stay one step ahead.

77% of UK businesses report significant improvements in operational efficiency after engaging with specialised consultancy services.

Every Vantify product connects seamlessly - saving time, cutting costs, and keeping your people and property protected.

Combine Vantify Consultancy with:

Vantify CAFM: Streamline compliance tasks by seamlessly integrating consultancy services with our CAFM system. Our consultants use this integration to gain a comprehensive view of maintenance, inspections, and risk assessments, and subsequently provide more informed recommendations.

Vantify Supply Chain: Maximise insurance management by utilising consultancy insights to identify and mitigate risks that can potentially lead to lower premiums and improved coverage. Your consultant will work with you to analyse data from Supply Chain and develop risk reduction strategies.

Vantify Risk Manager: Improve data accuracy and efficiency by integrating consultancy findings directly into the Risk Manager system, making critical information readily available. Our consultants will facilitate the transfer of information between systems, thereby maximising the value of your Risk Manager investment.
